The license of the Brooklyn, one of the Primo beer saloons, expired the last of the week. W. M. Cunningham, proprietor, estimates the value of the Brooklyn business compulsorily surrendered by the outlawing of Primo beer licenses at $10,000, based upon the outlay and the year's trade of the saloon.

The opening exercises of the reconstructed Temperance Hall took place in the old Queen Emma hall Saturday night last. The program consisted of songs and dances and a farce entitled "Johnson's Hotel," presented by the Tennessee Minstrels. The hit of the evening was a Chinese song by Mr. Esquind, accompanied by an orchestra of Chinese instruments. The hall was well filled. J. F. May is the new manager.

The ship Erakine M. Phelps will be taken over in the Naval row today by the Fearless. She will be placed next to the old Topgallant and take on board the ballast contained in the old hull. There is supposed to be in all between 300 and 350 tons. As soon as she has taken in the ballast the Phelps will make ready to sail for Talbal, Chile, where she is to await orders. She will probably leave this port on Wednesday or Thursday.

NEW TRIALS REFUSED

IN MURDER CASES OF FERRIS AND KIMURA

SEATTLE FIRM SUES HONOLULU FIRM — KAPIOLANI ESTATE SUED ON BILL OF EXCHANGE.

Argument on the motion for a new trial of George Ferris, sentenced to death for murder, was concluded at 3 p. m. Saturday. Judge Gear denied the motion and Mr. Reynolds for defendant noted an appeal.

The motion for a new trial made by H. W. Robinson in the case of Kimura, also under death sentence for murder, was likewise denied.

Osgood, Wheeler & Co., of Seattle, Wash., have filed suit in the First Circuit Court against L. B. Kerr & Co., for $1406 alleged to be due on a consignment of sashes and doors, with freight added. The goods were finished on April 23, 1902, when the plaintiff alleges the same were offered to defendant who refused to buy and receive them.

M. S. Grinbaum & Co. has filed suit in the Circuit Court against the Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., for $966.70 and interest from March 4, 1902, for the following cause: Certain persons designated as Alcock & Co., of Melbourne, on January 2, 1902, made a bill of exchange and directed the same to the defendant and required the defendant to pay to the order of the English, Scottish and Australian Bank, Ltd., the sum of $966.70 five days after sight, which period had elapsed before the commencement of the suit. The Australian bank endorsed the bill to the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleges that the bill of exchange was presented for acceptance to the defendant at Honolulu on March 6, 1902, but the defendant did not pay the same and it was protested on March 14, for nonpayment and the allegation is made that the defendant has refused to pay the sum mentioned.

CASTOR OIL PLANTERS HAVE HIGH HOPES

Frank J. Kruger, the treasurer of the Kaneohe Castor Oil Company, took a party over to the company's plantation near Kaneohe yesterday. The party which consisted of Frank Kruger, Captain E. H. Parker, J. Andrade, T. Lyons, Geo. Harris and A. G. M. Robertson, left the city at 9 o'clock in the morning in a large sloop, returning in the evening.

All were very favorably impressed with the plantation and great hopes are founded on this new industry. About 75 acres have now been planted and are doing well. Manager Koelling has planted a large number of East Indian castor oil beans, a variety which is found to be much superior to the Hawaiian variety, because the tree does not grow so tall and spreads more and the clusters of beans are larger and more plentiful than those of the local plant. The oil press will start to work today and great results are expected from the crop.

CRICKETER INJURED.

C. Von der Heyde, the well known New Zealand cricketer, met with a very painful accident at the cricket game at Makiki last Saturday afternoon. Von der Heyde was running over the field at full speed when his feet got into a hole with the result that he was thrown to the ground, injuring both knee caps in the fall. The injured man was immediately carried off the field and taken to his home. He is at present attended by Dr. Mays and Dr. Cooper. The injuries which Von der Heyde received are quite serious and in all probability the popular cricketer will be laid up for a couple of months.
